

Thursday

Brownston Ho^{use}
July 28th 1877

Dearest darling Mother

Thanks for your pretty letter I had
this morning.

This I am so glad
the Holiday are so near, will you let May

travelling

mother

come to meet me at the station with you if she is not at Weston. I am glad you are going to have a dinner party on Friday because I shall be at home then.

I gathered some wild strawberries on Thursday. Miss Bidwell gave us a party on Wednesday. We had acting characters the words we acted were innoceⁿce, Lemmerick and gooseberry. I have no rematisham now I don't know how to spell

it so excuse me spelling

it wrong

Give my love and kisses
-es to dear Papa and little and keep some your

-self from

by our loving child

Emmeline

I start from here in the 10¹⁵