21. Somerset-Terrace,
W.C.
Nov. 25.

Dear Mr. Champ,

You will express me very much. You say you have known the facts about Mr. Hinton for years, yet you have not altered your first words in which he is described as "the found enough for me. But I cannot understand your position at all. I thought you would be glad to use the hobis I sent you to put matters right in your words in which case I should have given them up as of no use to me, but I must use them

Leader of the Headingley Lads, whereas he was only an occasional dancer.
You have also evidently not-ticed in that the Lads which you
saw at Headingley
about 11 years ago
was a revived Lads
and only contained
a few of the real traditional dancers.

In your third book
you say it is not safe to take tunes
from a revived Lads, yet as far as I understand all
the tunes and dance
in your first two books were taken from revived Lads, i.e. Bridgend and Headingley.
But Cowes Kimberley Credentials are

My very dear Lord
Bishop, I am sorry we could not have had the Conference
on the whole question of the Sanctuary Lamps and arrange altogether. And so I will write to the Many Churches
Can be Settled.

Until then I am Considering the matter and prefer
and shall answer
as far as possible
all queries in the printed form.

Yours sincerely,

Mary Ward